

PRESIDENTIAL LECTURE SERIES

A FIRESIDE CHAT

with

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.

President, University of Notre Dame

STEWART CENTER'S FOWLER HALL • FEB. 29 • 7 P.M.

REV. JOHN
I. JENKINS,
C.S.C.
PRESIDENT,
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., who has served as the president of the University of Notre Dame for nearly two decades, will join Purdue President Mung Chiang for a conversation as part of the Presidential Lecture Series.

Jenkins has boosted the university's research funding since his appointment in 2005. He also led Notre Dame's efforts to join the Association of American Universities, an invitation-only organization representing research universities. Notre Dame is the nation's only religiously affiliated university to be so honored.

Notre Dame secured almost $216 million in research awards in fiscal 2023, up from $95.8 million in 2013, and is now among the fastest-growing research universities in the nation. Funding was distributed over 824 awards, the most ever in one year.

Recognizing the high cost of education, Notre Dame has dramatically increased financial aid over the past 15 years, meeting 100% of demonstrated financial need for every student.

A popular teacher, Father Jenkins has taught courses on ancient and medieval philosophy, faith and reason, and Thomas Aquinas. He is a philosopher trained in theology and has been a member of Notre Dame's Department of Philosophy since 1990.

Jenkins earned undergraduate and advanced degrees from Notre Dame, a Doctorate of Philosophy from Oxford University, and a Master of Divinity and Licentiate in Sacred Theology from the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley in California.
